

Update User's Guide for Using Rest Room (August 2025)

In the section Response to Minor Injuries and Health Issues, remove following line:

- During the Users Office working hours (weekdays 9:00–17:30), users may use the Resting Room for bed rental or receive basic first aid, depending on the situation.

In the subsection Overview of the Resting Rooms, the current text is replaced with the updated version as follows.

【Current】

- There are two Resting Rooms available in Sub-Entrance Hall 2.
- Both Resting Room 1 and 2 can be used freely as break areas, even by those not experiencing injuries or health issues.
- Partitioned areas are available for changing clothes.
- Resting Room 1 is designated for women, and Resting Room 2 is designated for men.
- Only beverages and snacks may be consumed inside. Meals are not allowed.
- Users must maintain cleanliness in the Resting Rooms.

【Updated】

※ Use of the Rest Room as a Break Area Has Been Prohibited Since August 2025.

- There are two rest rooms located at Sub-Entrance 2 (Room 1 for women, Room 2 for men).
- These rooms are available for rest in case of physical discomfort or for first aid treatment in the event of injury. Please contact the Users Office (022-785-9898; security staff will respond during nights, weekends, and holidays) before use.
- In addition, the rooms may be used for short periods for purposes such as changing clothes.
- Please set the door sign to “In Use” while using the room, and return it to “Vacant” after use.
- When the door sign indicates “In Use,” entry is prohibited to anyone other than authorized personnel.
- Only beverages may be consumed inside the room; eating is strictly prohibited.
- Please maintain cleanliness and hygiene inside the room.
- For safety management purposes, NanoTerasu staff may enter the room to check the situation. We appreciate your understanding in advance.

In the subsection First Aid in the Resting Rooms, the current text is replaced with the updated version as follows.

【Current】

If a minor injury occurs during an experiment or if a user feels unwell, they may contact the Users Office during working hours (weekdays 9:00–17:30). A nurse may provide assistance in the Resting Room, depending on the severity of the condition. A first-aid kit is available near the entrance of the Resting Room. Users may use it as needed for basic first aid.

【Updated】

If a minor injury occurs during an experiment or if you feel unwell, a nurse may respond in the Resting Room depending on your symptoms or condition, provided it is during weekday working hours (9:00–17:30). Please contact the Users Office. A first-aid kit is available near the entrance of the Resting Room. Users may use it as needed for basic first aid.
